MRS. LESTER DUPUY SEARS
the former Miss Norma Jeanne Chuchek

Wedding Held On Saturday

Miss Norma Jeanne Chuchek wed Lester Dupuy Sears on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock in Liberty Baptist Church of Appomattox. The Reverend Everett H. Chapman officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Charles Chuchek of Appomattox. Mr. Sears is the son of Mrs. Henry Lester Sears of Farmville, and the late Mr. Sears.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of ivory silk organza fashioned with a sculptured Empire bodice, with yoke of lace over satin ribbon, was fashioned with a high Victorian neckline, and long Bishop sleeves. She carried a Colonial bouguet.

Thomas Ogburn Sondrant, Jr. of Farmville, acted as Best Man.

Ushers were: Franklin Case Weightman of Blackaburg, Va., brother of the bride; Sam Daniel Sears of Farmville, brother of the groom; and Uriel Carter Carson, Jr. of Farmville.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Nancye Mathews, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coffey.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the social hall of the church. Later the couple left for a southern wedding trip.

In June, the bride will receive her B.S. degree from The School of Nursing in Richmond, Virginia.

Mr. Sears is a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity at Wake-Forest University in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, where in June he will receive his B.A. degree in economics.

Miss Joanne Marie Chuchek, twin sister of the bride, and maid of honor wore a slipper length dress of orchid chiffon. The Empire bodice, with yoke of lace over satin ribbon, was fashioned with a high Victorian neckline, and long Bishop sleeves, She carried a Colonial bouguet.
